

IT'S JUST YARN!

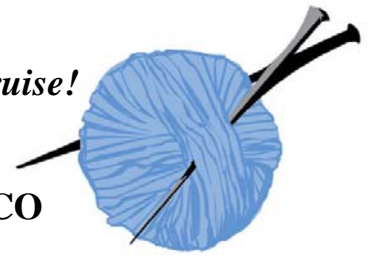

2nd Annual "Not-So-Serious" Knitting Cruise!

MEXICAN RIVIERA CRUISE

STAR PRINCESS

ROUNDTRIP FROM SAN FRANCISCO

November 10-20, 2008

You are invited to sail on a 10-day roundtrip knitting cruise aboard the Star Princess to the Mexican Riviera. The ship sails roundtrip from San Francisco with stops in Acapulco, Ixtapa, Puerto Vallarta and Cabo San Lucas. The voyage is escorted by two slightly irreverent knitting teachers, Nancy McDaniel and Lori Arden, who believe that...it's just yarn! On sea days and shorter port days, there will be time to review knitting basics or help you improve your techniques. Bring your projects and share your tips, tricks and knitting secrets. This cruise is for knitters who want to have FUN and anyone who just wants to travel with the FUN people! Husbands are most welcome but feel free to leave him at home too!

The STAR PRINCESS features deluxe staterooms, a variety of fine dining venues, cozy lounges, Lotus Spa, swimming pool, hot tubs, oceanview fitness center, outdoor walking track, casino, art auctions and exciting productions in the Princess Theater.

Nancy McDaniel learned to knit on her grandmother's knee. Nancy was the Executive Asst. to the City of Alameda Chief of Police and knows how to control a crowd. She has taught knitting for years and has never met a grape she didn't like.

Lori Arden recently learned to knit but sacrificed the rest of her life to pick up sticks. She owned and operated a knitting store in Pleasanton, CA and is now a certified fiber junkie. She is known to never leave a thought unspoken.
